London and South Florida research touchdown offices

The dynamic transitory months of Dec 08 + Jan 09 have been accented further by harnessing potential within two moving markets.

The realisation of 2 research touchdown offices in London and South Florida further extends our network of facilities, bolstering our ability to target specific markets aswell as formulate and hold localised bodies of research for application worldwide.

For more information on our offices contact Dan Callegari in the UK on +44 (0) 7894 607645 or Alan Georgeson in the US on +1 305 393 5230
